Dear Member,

Electronic Communication

In order to facilitate communication with members, the Institute will deliver notices, documents, etc. through electronic channels as far as possible. This, in addition to save time, also reduces paper consumption and helps conserve natural resources.

Seminar notices and important messages are posted in <http://www.hkimls.org>. You may also log in Members Communication to check your CPD record, subscription status, etc.

Emails

Reminder to attend upcoming seminars and notice of recreational activities will be sent to your email address. A copy of this notice will also drop in your email account shortly. If you do not receive it, please notify us by email through info@hkimls.org, with your name and membership number stated, so that your email address can be updated.

Facebook

- 1/ log in your Facebook account,
- 2/ type and search "HKIMLS",
- 3/ when the page is shown, click the "Ask to join group" hyperlink, and
- 4/ notice will be given when your request has been accepted.

We would be highly appreciated if you could enjoy these communication means.
